

Mt. Shasta Estates Homeowners Association

Statement of Requirements and Procedures for Association Approval of Physical Changes to Property

- Condominium governing documents require association approval for improvements and alterations of a unit which change the appearance of any exterior area, change any interior common area, impair structural integrity or interfere with plumbing, electrical, or heating service to other units or the common area.